THE expressions of opinion on the Franco-Chinese war of the French Press are interest ing at the present moment, especially when our Shanghai friends are so eager for the mediation of the neutral Powers. French nation have all along, we believe, been averse to entering upon a war with China, not only because they consider the Tonquin question is enough to have on their hands in this part of the world, but also on the ground of expense. The French Press, however, are not so much restrained by financial considerations, while some journals hold the opinion that when the Peking Government see that France is really in carnest they will come to terms. We find the Gozette Diplomatique, commenting on the subject expressing the belief that "the ill-will of China will cease whenever that Power shall -be-perfectly-persuaded-that-we_are-determin ed to pursite, coille qui coule, the settlement of that question. China has been constantly speculating on the division of parties in France and on the intervention of Europe. The French Parliament can never have misled her on the first point. As to the second, it is out of the question that Europe would not remain neutral, China having placed herself in a position which no Power could support even with a manifestation of sympathy." There is much truth in the assertion that China hoped for the intervention of the Courbet. Treaty Powers. She was, however, leaning upon a broken reed, as she has discovered ere now. No Western Power could espouse her side in this quarrel, for she has yet to make out her case. It is a pity, however, if expected to arrive here on the 1st October. China has been self-deceived, for she wil certainly have to rue the consequences. That this was the case, we feel persuaded, the circumstance that LI HUNG-CHANG wished to see the Vicomte DE SEMALLE when he passed | for Manila lottery tickets. This is not good for through Tientsin supporting the supposition that, the reeds she had been leaning having been removed. China was willing to recommence negotiations. The Viceroy of Chihli is still anxious for peace, we understand, and the War Party's opposition may at any moment suddenly and completely collapse. But the Peking Government, who have played | which they have to go out to the Mortuary and with the fire a little too long, may since have realised that repontance is a phantom of the | Magistracy to hold the inquiry. Of course it is past that comes too late.

War has not been declared by France, but it has been commenced, and the results so far have been very disastrons to China, She more convenient. The French Govarnment have given some sort of pladge to the Treaty Powers that they will not interfore with trade more than is necessary, but carried against the Macedon. The damage we are not aware that they have made any formal engagement to respect the neutrality of any of the Treaty Ports save Shangha and the partial blockade of that port by the Chinese is producing an effect almost equivalent to that of war. The Paris National, in an article on the subject, says :- "What may deter us from attacking them is the ground of expediency. It is easy to understand that France should think twice before disturbing the interests involved, both those of her own trade and those of the trade of other Powers. THE SHORE DEFINICES OF MONGKONG. With regard to the recent telegram from home giving instructions for proceeding with the work of strengthening the shore-defences of Hongkong, it seems very doubtful whother the and China has had a great deal to do with the order. The work of perfecting the defences of the colony has been going on gradually for years past, a small portion of work long planned being carried out wach year, In 1878, at the time of the Russo-Turkish war, a plan of improved defences was drawn out and approved, and the work would have been proceeded with vigorously at the time had not the Treaty of Berlin brought peace again. The project for the new fortifications was not rolinquished, however, on the cessation of hostilities, but the question arose as to how the cost was to be met -who was to pay the piper-and after some consideration it was decided that a small yearly grant should be made for them; BEFORE THE HON. SIR GEORGE PHILLIPPO and each year as much work should be done as this grant would cover. Thus our fortifications have slowly progressed, and we have now the forts on Stone Cutters' Island, North Point, Belchers Bay, Kowloon &c., none of which are probably Capt. Dempster is still bent on promoting yet in the state of perfection they are intended al timately to reach. In addition to those fortifications which we have now the scheme of 1878 anting to over $100 in value will be includes another fortat Belcher's Point, one more exigencies of a war provoked by the Chinese offered, and the contest will take the form of a on Stone Cutters' Island, two on land in Kowleon which has from the first been retained for purposes of erecting defences, and another either in the All letters for publication should be written on one pirit of Englishmen would fain hold sacred. Fair maiden, cithping in the sylvan shade. Dreaming so lightly, free, and innecent, Not yet upon the mirror of thy soul y Hea gleamed the light of that most passionate love That soon shall be to thee the breath of life--A butning incomes from the highest heaven. Not yet! But first a little while, that he, Who by the deep endearment of thy face Has woke from out a weary waste of years To all the majesty of life and love. May rise on wings of thought to regions at To win and wear thee as a paorless gem Set in his heart of hearts.
